

I am a frequent traveler. As such xm radio provides me with weather up dates which provide for my safty. Normal broadcast radio does not carry throughout the country. When Ice or tornados are in an area that I travel , I want to know If I'm approaching a large city traffic warnings help me avoid a city by heading in an alternative direction. XM radio should be allowed to provide enev more data.